

Bora Bora

Bora Bora has a nice mix of local and international cuisine. The restaurants at each of the properties are excellent; there is a handful of independent restaurants on the island. Here are our “coups de Coeur”!

Bloody Mary’s

Tel. 011-689-40 67 72 86

Povai Bay, near Hotel Bora Bora

Website: <http://bloodymarys.com>

Schedule: 9:30 – 9PM

This very exotic restaurant has made its name and has become a not-to-be-missed spot when visiting Bora Bora. A large wooden panel signed by all the celebrities who have visited the place welcomes you to Bloody Mary’s. Everything is built with beautiful woods, seats and tables are from coconut trunks, floor is all white sand. Ladies forget the heels! What is special there? Well the incredible choice of fresh seafood. You get to pick your own catch of the day out of a selection of local favorites. Try the parrot fish (oh so tender) or treat yourself to lobster! $$$$

St James

Tel. 011-689-40 67 64 62

Centre Commercial de Pahia, Vaitape

Schedule: 5:30PM – 12AM

An amazing dining option in Bora Bora, a short walk from the Vaitape pier. Emphasis on French cuisine but with a hint of Tahiti and the result is just exquisite. The restaurant located right by the water offers beautiful views on the lagoon. The Bar area is all sandy floor and Romain’s cocktails are the best! For lunch they have set menus fairly priced for Bora Bora. $$$$

Villa Mahana

Tel. 011-689-40 67 50 63

Amanahune, Vaitape

TOURISME

Schedule: 6PM – 11PM

Most probably THE best fine dining in Bora Bora. At Villa Mahana cuisine is an art and Chef Damien has ravished many palates with his French Mediterranean cuisine. The restaurant is always fully booked weeks and even months ahead so be sure to make your reservation way in advance. The restaurant's walls are adorned with artist Garrick Yroni's house, the whole block built in Mediterranean style. Reservations required way in advance. $$$$$

Le MaiKai

Tel. 011-689-40 60 38 00

Vaitape, Marina Yach Club

Website: <http://www.maikaimarina.com/index.php/restaurant>

Overlooking the water, the MaiKai restaurant features international, French & Tahitian cuisine. Choose from a nice selection of tuna carpaccios or tartars. They organize some fun parties once in a while. $$$$

Fare Manuia – The Lucky House

Tel. 011-689-40 67 68 08

Matira, Vaitape

Website: <http://www.theluckyhouseborabora.com>

Schedule: 10AM – 11PM

A nice local restaurant offering French – Polynesian cuisine and a great selection of pizzas. Fairly priced for Bora Bora, and good food. Pizzas are quite large so you can share. Their “shrimps curry” is delicious. One of the locals' favorite casual dining just steps from Matira Beach. (walking distance from the Intercontinental Moana and the Maitai Bora Bora). $$$

Roulotte Matira

Tel. 011-689-40 67 67 29

Matira
